E-BILL

From: Ubebill <ubebill@buffalo.edu>
Date:
To:
Subject: Your University at Buffalo eBill is available online- Due on !

Name:
ID #:
Invoice Amount: <-----●
Payment Due: <-----●

Note: If you're enrolled in classes before July 17, you'll have an e-bill sent then.

It is due [in full] August 16.

Your University at Buffalo electronic billing statement (eBill) is now available. You are receiving this notification due to potential new activity on your account such as charges, payments, refunds or Financial Aid activity. Any unpaid charges from the previous eBill will be brought forward, and additional charges, payments and credits will be shown. The payment due date and amount due can be found on your eBill. Anticipated aid is being used to reduce the amount due. The billing statement is a snap shot of your account at a particular point in time (the invoice date).

To view your eBill:

1. Log into your HUB Student Center through <http://myub.buffalo.edu>.
2. In your Student Center, under the Finances section, click on the payment options link. You will be taken to a University at Buffalo/QuikPAY Student Center Payment Options screen.
3. Click on View Accounts
4. Click on Recent Statement for the most current eBill or Statement History for all of your eBills.
5. Your eBills are presented in an HTML format, but are also available in a printable, PDF format.
